

Roadmap for strengthening client and patient self-determination - base plan for further preparation

LEGISLATIVE AMENDMENTS

- Government bill to Parliament, 2022
- Legal remedies for involuntary medication (psychiatric care)
- Repeal of the outdated Act on Welfare for Substance Abusers; updating of necessary regulation
- Inclusion of the autonomy regulation of the Act on Special Care for People with Intellectual Disabilities (Act on the Status and Rights of Social Welfare Clients, Act on the Status and Rights of Patients)

LEGISLATIVE AMENDMENTS

- Review
- Implementation of fundamental and human rights obligations
- Strengthening the autonomy of children and young adults, the elderly and the disabled
- Unforeseen circumstances in social welfare
- Autonomy in somatic care
- Autonomy in psychiatric and forensic psychiatric care
- Overview of restrictive measures, legal remedies and regulatory control

LEGISLATIVE AMENDMENTS

- Follow-up assessment
- Needs for adjustment identified during the implementation monitoring phase
- Other needs for adjustment

COLLECTING DATA

- Research findings
- Successful projects to increase participation and reduce the use of restrictive measures
- Use of restrictive measures and recording policies

PRACTICES AND PARTICIPATION

- Strengthening client and patient participation
- Reducing restrictive measures
- Consolidating successful practices

SERVICES AND EXPERTISE

- The right service at the right time
- Prevention
- Training of professionals and students